‘Pip’

British War Medal

‘Squeak’

‘Wilfred’

The 1914–15 Star (left) was issued to officers and men who served in any theatre of war between 5th August 1914 and 31st December 1915, other than those who had already qualified for the 1914 Star. It was never awarded singly.

Recipients of the Star also received the British War Medal (centre) and the Victory Medal (right). These three medals were sometimes referred to as Pip, Squeak and Wilfred, with Pip representing either the 1914 Star or the 1914/15 Star, Squeak the British War Medal, and Wilfred the Victory Medal.
